

Nautical Channel Selected as International Media Partner for Bacardi Cup & BACARDI Sailing Week for second year straight

[23/01/2014] After the success of 2013, Nautical Channel's status as the official international media partner for the Bacardi Cup & BACARDI Sailing Week presented by EFG Bank has been renewed for the 2014 edition of the event. The event, which takes place in Miami from 2-8 March and then in Newport from 8-14 July, will be broadcasted throughout the USA (Dish Network - International Sports Pack) and across 43 other countries, in 4 languages.

"Rum and sailing are bound to create an intoxicating cocktail, one that we are proud to collaborate with through the renewal of our partnership with BACARDI Sailing Week."

Andrew Miller, Head of Programming at Nautical Channel

"We are very proud to achieve our 5th Bacardi Miami Sailing Week edition and most importantly the 87th Bacardi Cup. This year we would like to welcome the VX One Class and the continuation of the Star Sailors League program. We would also like to thank the Nautical Channel for renewing their support through their world wide programming."

Sara Zanobini, Bacardi Sailing Week Event Director

Both Nautical Channel and BACARDI Sailing Week have much to gain from this ongoing partnership. Via Nautical Channel's programming, BACARDI Sailing Week will be viewed by the largest group of nautical viewers around the globe while Nautical Channel will have extensive exposure both to the competitors and spectators participating at the event.

Bacardi Cup & BACARDI Miami Sailing Week is the most anticipated multi-class regatta in Miami. 200 boats with competitors from 23 countries and across the U.S.A. will meet again and line up under Miami's sunny skies on Biscayne Bay to compete for the celebrated Bacardi Cup and the BMSW regatta trophy.
