

Nautical Channel gets in front of the action with NC Sports starting February 21st!

19/02/2013 - NC Sports is a fixed rendezvous, updated three times a week, that will delight viewers with the most exciting nautical sporting coverage of everything from sailing to surfing from around the world.

Laurence Hopper, CEO of Nautical Channel, says "we are pleased to partner with INTV Productions, the premiere nautical sports newsroom, in order to bring fresh and exciting nautical sports news to our viewers around the world". Gero Malingri, the Global Sports Director in charge of NC Sports says, "NC Sports is where all the latest nautical sports stories come together. Our job is to make Nautical Channel the global leader for nautical sports TV coverage."

NC Sports: Weekly News – Thursdays 17:00 CET

Weekly rundown of the nautical sporting world's top news stories.

NC Sports: Top Story - Saturdays 17:00 CET

In-depth analysis on a single topic that is trending in the nautical sporting world.

NC Sports: The Buzz – every other Tuesday 17:00 CET

All that's fit to print, with reports from special guests and Nautical Channel correspondents in the field.

INTV Productions – Format Factory

NC Sports Newsroom - NCsports@nauticalchannel.net

Gero Malingri - Global Sports Director

Adam Jong - Global Sport Producer

Beau Malingri - Global Sports Producer

Tiziano Passacantili - Global Sports Editor

Nautical Channel is available to over 20 million subscribers in 37 countries in English, French, German, Italian (Y&S), and Russian. In USA it is available on Dish network international sports pack. It is on over one hundred international pay TV, satellite, subscriber IPTV, mobile phone, Digital Terrestrial, MMDS and cable TV platforms. The programming wheel covers over twenty interest areas; including everything from extreme water sports to competitive sailing.

www.NauticalChannel.net